

INVESTMENT PIECE

This extraordinary chandelier is the work of renowned UK jewellery designer Winnie Lui and comes in either black or white. The exclusivity factor is high, with just 100 of each colour being made and only two available in Australia. It's art for your ceiling. Available at Optique, (07) 3386 1700; www.optique.com.au.

Winnie Lui chandelier, $20,900, from Optique (07) 3386 1700.

Living

The queen as inspiration and homewares that dazzle.

By Margaret Merten

UNEXPECTED MUSE: THEIR MAJESTIES

Queens, from Elizabeth's I and II to Marie Antoinette, are still proving quite the inspiration. Add a regal touch to your home with these whimsical objects from Edit in Sydney's Surry Hills, the brainchild of retailer Belinda Seper and Sharyn Storrier Lyneham. Edit, (02) 9358 5806; www.edit-group.com.au.

Clockwise from left: Vintage framed compact on velvet, $290. Vintage tapestry and velvet pouf, $715. Antique vase with hand-pleated ruff, $1500, all from Edit, (02) 9358 5806.

Bringing home the runway trends: graciously gilded.

Givenchy autumn/winter 2008-2009.

Glitter balls (sold as set of four only), $12.95, from Domayne, (02) 8339 7000; www.domayne.com.au.

